

The Community Garden Vocabulary Matching

Match the spelling words with pictures, definitions, and quotes from The Community Garden that show their meanings.

Word	Picture	Definition	Quote	Picture	Definition	Quote
pupil					A green herb used to add flavor to food.	Oh, no! A bug is making tiny holes in the leaves!
weevil					Very calm and peaceful.	They all took turns placing their wooden signs on the iron block to nail them together before decorating.
basil					A thin, curly part of a plant that helps it climb.	The gerbil looks calm .
gerbil					A student or the part of the eye that lets light in.	Plants with climbing parts could grow upwards more easily.
anvil					A heavy iron block used by blacksmiths to shape metal.	"Look, a rodent !" shouted Sage.
tendrils					A small bug that can harm plants or stored food; a pest.	There were many different herbs in the garden with pleasant smells .
stencil					A sheet with cut-out shapes used for drawing or painting.	A few students were drawing pictures with pencils, rulers, and stencils.
tranquil					A small, furry animal in the mammal class and in the same order as mice; a type of rodent.	Lily traced the shape of a rectangle .