may, might, will: Degrees of certainty

1 Look at the chart. Complete the sentences with the correct form of may, might, or will, and the words in parentheses.

won't	0%
probably won't	25%
may / may not; might / might not	50%
probably will	75%
will	100%

Doug and Joe have an exam on Monday, so they may not / might not be (be) at Fran's party tonight. (50%)

1 Tina doesn't enjoy traveling, so she _____ (visit) her friends in Peru next summer. (0%)

2 You love helping people, so you _____ (go) to university and become a doctor. (100%)

3 I have some money, so I _____ (buy) that hat. (50%)

4 Mike and I _____ (get) engaged this year. (25%)

5 Grant _____ (leave) home after he graduates. (75%)

2 Look at the information in the chart. Write sentences about Miguel and Julia using the correct form of may, might, or will.

	Miguel	Julia
get a driver's license	0%
1 get engaged		75%
2 do volunteer work	25%
3 go traveling		50%
4 earn lots of money	100%	25%

Miguel won't get a driver's license.

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

4 _____

Printable © Oxford University Press 2020

LIVEWORKSHEETS