

Salmon Cannon Attracts Global Attention

A contraption that launches salmon to their spawning [redacted] has caught the attention of people across the globe. Video of the salmon cannon, developed by Whooshh Innovations, has gone viral on the [redacted]. The video shows the fish swimming into a tube that propels them across a dam and [redacted] them out on the other side. Inside the flexible tube, the fish are misted with water so they can keep [redacted] during their journey. The cannons are an alternative to traditional fish [redacted] that salmon have to jump up to bypass a dam or other obstruction.