

1. Label each stage during fertilization.

2. Read and answer the following the questions.

- Where does fertilization take place?
- What is the name of the new cell when the egg & sperm combine?
- The cells containing the genetic material inside are called?
- How many chromosomes are there in a human body cell?
- After a zygote has gone through cell division several times, it is called?
- The process of a sperm cell uniting with an egg cell is called:
