CHAD'S WORK BLOG

A day in the life of a cowboy

Hi! I'm Chad. I'm a cowboy in Montana, USA. I work on a big farm with ten other cowboys. The farm has got 3,000 cows. In the summer I sleep in a tent. I get up very early, at 5 am. We cook breakfast on a fire. After breakfast I get ready. Then I ride with the other cowboys to the 'cow camp'.

Let me tell you about my job. In the winter we give food to the cows. In the spring there are lots of calves (baby cows). In the summer we move the cows to new place every day. We work 16 hours a day in the summer. But on Thursdays we ride in the rodeo. That's fun!

I'm very tired in the evening. But before dinner I clean my horse and give him his dinner. He's very important! Then I get washed and I have dinner with the other cowboys. We eat lots of meat and potatoes and drink coffee.

A cowboy's life is dangerous but I love my job. And I love my horse. I don't wear a uniform but I wear jeans and a cowboy shirt. And I've got a big cowboy hat, of course!
