

CACKLE

to laugh quietly in
an unpleasant
way

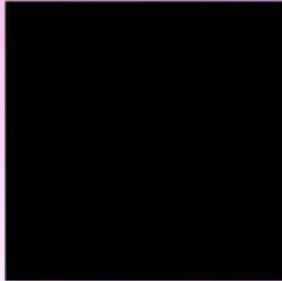

CHORTLE

to laugh because you are
disappointed
about something

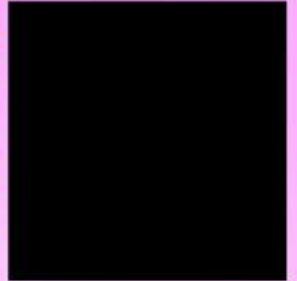

GUFFAW

to laugh very loudly in a
controlled way

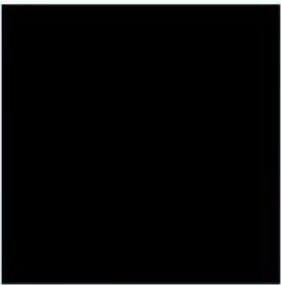

SNIGGER

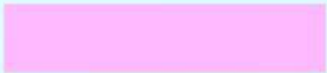

to laugh quietly in
a kind manner,
especially when
someone is hurt

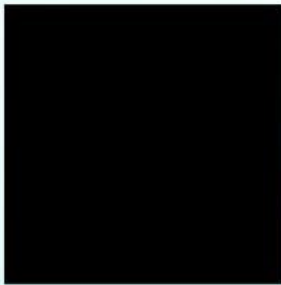

CHUCKLE

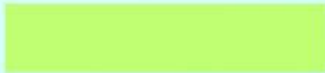

to laugh loudly,
usually because you
are thinking or reading
something hilarious

GIGGLE

to laugh quietly about something that might be comfortable for
someone else

TITTER

to laugh in a high
voice, usually
because you are
embarrassed or angry

