

1. Read the text carefully.

📖 Reading: A Colorful Dish from Peru

Mateo was from Peru. His favorite food was Causa, a traditional Peruvian dish. He loved helping his grandma in the kitchen. They used potatoes, avocado, tuna, and a little bit of chili. They followed a family recipe with fresh ingredients.

Mateo wanted to be a food artist. He cut the potatoes into a round shape and put the pieces together like a puzzle. Then he decorated the top with eggs and olives. It looked beautiful and tasted delicious!

His grandma always asked, "What did it look like?" Mateo said, "It looked like a flower!" She smiled and said, "Who was it for?" He answered, "It was for the whole family!"

2. 🖍 Write T (True) or F (False).

- Mateo was from Peru.
- He cooked pasta with his grandma.
- Causa had potatoes, tuna, and avocado.
- He put the pieces together like a puzzle.
- The dish looked like a star.

3. Answer the questions in the past tense.

- What was Mateo's favorite dish?
- Who did he help in the kitchen?
- What ingredients did he use?
- What did the dish look like?
- Who was the dish for?