Look at the sentences and put T if you think it's true or F if you think it's false. Read the text and check your ideas.

1. People love eating pineapples in Columbia. ☐
2. Colombians boil ants and spread them on bread. ☐
3. Cambodian people fry spiders. ☐
4. Cambodians eat spiders with biscuits or candies. ☐

Unusual Foods Around the World.

Some countries don't like any experiments and prefer to eat popular food like potatoes, cucumbers or other vegetables, different fruit, beef, pork or chicken. Others really like shocking and surprising.

Do you know that in Columbia people love eating ants? They fry ants, add salt and some sauce. You can find this food in many cafes and restaurants because Columbians eat them a lot!

What about spiders? Well, Cambodian people think that spiders are very tasty. Even children eat them! How do they cook spiders? The recipe is very simple: fry it and add some sauce. Cambodians eat them with different vegetables (for example, cucumbers). Do you want to try it?

Do you like eating unusual food? Beef with jam? Cucumbers with pudding? If yes, then you should try something from other countries.

LIVEWORKSHEETS