Euphemism or Hyperbole?

Euphemism:
an inoffensive expression that is substituted for one that is considered offensive

Hyperbole:
extreme exaggeration

1. To break wind
2. I'm starving!
3. I weigh a ton!
4. She is vertically challenged.
5. You snore louder than a freight train!
6. She was let go from her job today.
7. I have a million things to do
8. I've told you a million times!
9. It was so cold the polar bears were wearing coats.
10. He is such a couch potato!

LIVEWORKSHEETS