SUBJECT & OBJECT QUESTIONS

IN ENGLISH, WE CAN ASK ABOUT:

1. THE SUBJECT –WHO/WHAT DOES THE ACTION?
2. THE OBJECT (COMPLEMENT) –WHO/WHAT RECEIVES THE ACTION?

examples:

Subject → Tom works in a factory. ← Object (complement)

Who works in a factory?

Where does Tom work?

ENGLISH

Statement: Emily reads books.

Subject Question: (Who does the action?)

➤ Who reads books? (Emily)

Object Question: (What does she read?)

➤ What does Emily read? (books)

Present Simple

Statement: Tom painted a picture.

Subject Question:

➤ Who painted a picture? (Tom)

Object Question:

➤ What did Tom paint? (a picture)

Past Simple

Statement: Sarah is watching a movie.

Subject Question:

➤ Who is watching a movie? (Sarah)

Object Question:

➤ What is Sarah watching? (a movie)

Present Continuous

Tips:

1. Subject Questions: No auxiliary verb (do/does/did), just "Who" or "What" + verb.
2. Object Questions: Use auxiliary verb (do/does/did) or the correct form of "to be".
