

WORKSHEET

I. Listen to the conversation and choose True or False:

- Sarah wants some cheese. T/ F
- She wants a lot of lemons. T/ F
- The stallholder has small tomatoes. T/ F
- She asks for an onion. T/ F

II. Fill the gaps:

- I'd like _____ potatoes.
- Have you got _____ small tomatoes?
- I'd like _____ onion.
- I haven't got _____.

III. Analyze the next chart:

QUANTIFIERS

Use	Examples
a / an	a lemon an onion.
some	some cheese some potatoes.
any	Have you got any tomatoes? I don't have any cheese.

IV. Complete the shopping dialogue:

SARAH: Hello, I'd like _____ lemon and _____ onion, please.

STALLHOLDER: Just one?

SARAH: Yes, and I'd like _____ potatoes, too.

STALLHOLDER: Is this bag OK?

SARAH: Yes, fine. Have you got _____ small tomatoes?

STALLHOLDER: I'm sorry, but I haven't got _____ small tomatoes.

SARAH: OK, the big ones there are fine. Also I'd like _____ cheese.

STALLHOLDER: I'm sorry, I don't sell cheese. Try that guy over there.

V. Adapt and act in a short market dialogue like in the example

- Use a/an, some, any correctly
- Include 4 food items