

ACTIVITY 1:

Choose the correct verb form to complete each sentence. Think about whether the consequence is in the past or still true now.

- 1) We _____ in legal trouble now if we _____ the contract earlier.

- 2) If they _____ more staff, the product launch _____ delayed.

- 3) If we _____ in cybersecurity, we _____ the breach.

- 4) The project _____ more smoothly if the client _____ expectations clearly.

- 5) If I _____ the figures earlier, this report _____ errors.

- 6) If we _____ earlier, we _____ done by now.

- 7) If they _____ the schedule, the speaker _____

ACTIVITY 2:

Rewrite each sentence using a third or mixed conditional. Use the correct structure to express regret or imagined outcomes in a business context.

- 1) I didn't take the client's concern seriously. Now they've switched providers.
- 2) We didn't clarify the scope at the beginning. That's why there were so many issues later.
- 3) He didn't check the agenda. He was unprepared for the meeting.
- 4) They ignored the early feedback. Now the users are complaining.
- 5) We didn't ask enough questions during the briefing. We misunderstood the task

