

REVIEW

Chapter 1 : Lesson 1A

1. Select all the statements that are true about a person's Worldview.

- A) A person's beliefs, attitudes and values are all part of his/her Worldview.
- B) A person's Worldview affects the way he/she thinks, acts, what decisions he/she makes, and also how he/she interprets facts.
- C) A person's Worldview affects your religious and political choices.
- D) A person's Worldview is a "lens" through which he/she views and interprets all of life.

2. Drag & Drop each of the following items into the correct box :

Big Bang Theory	Humans are made in the Image of God.	Science more important than Biblical truths.
Young Earth Theory	Supports the occurrence of a Global Flood.	Religious Scriptures guide moral values.
Old Earth Theory

Secular Worldview	Biblical Worldview

3. Select all the ways in which you think a scientist's Worldview might affect his/her work ?

- A) A Scientist's Worldview will play a role in the areas of Science he/she prefers to explore.
- B) A Scientist's Worldview will influence the way he/she interprets scientific data.
- C) A Scientist's Worldview will influence his/her choice of research methods and techniques.
- D) A Scientist's Worldview will affect the basic mathematical principles that he/she uses every day during scientific calculations.

4. Drag & Drop each of the following items into the correct box :

Accepts the Big Bang and Nebular Theories.	Accepts the idea of Evolution.	Accepts the idea of a divine Creator.
Accepts the Bible as the final source of truth.	Believes that Science trumps Biblical truths.	Accepts the idea of Intelligent Design.

Naturalism

Creationism