Don "Ironman" Baxter

Don Baxter loved to run, but he was no ordinary runner. Don only started running when he was 50. His favorite kind of sports event was the Ironman. In the Ironman, you have to swim, bike, and run. He did the Hawaii Ironman every year. When he was 63, in the Hawaii Ironman he swam four-kilometers in 90 minutes, and then rode 180 kilometers on his bike in under seven-and-a-half hours. That was his favorite part. Finally, he ran 42 kilometers in five-and-a-half hours. He was the fastest runner in his age group, and was faster than a lot of younger men. He kept on running for the rest of his life, and ran ten-kilometers only six days before he died at the age of 89.

- _____ 6. Don Baxter was no ordinary runner because he began running when he was older.

Hi Amy,

Thanks for asking about my trip to Chicago! It was fun. I went to visit my friend, Arturo. I took the train from New York City. Arturo got to the station at 6:00 a.m. to pick me up, but my train was late because there was a lot of snow and the train had to stop for a few hours. It finally got to the station at 9:00 a.m. Arturo showed me a few interesting sights, and then we went to a Thai restaurant for lunch. Later, we watched a movie and went swimming. I wanted to go dancing that night, but by 10:00 p.m., I was so tired I went to bed. Arturo went to play volleyball with his friends. He has an exciting life! I'll write more later.

See you soon!
