

Task 4

- 1) There is a church which is easily (access) from my home.
- 2) She was very (sympathy) when my brother died.
- 3) But (pardon) errors are errors none the less.
- 4) But the campaigns have been very (amateur) and many of the younger people are not (interest).
- 5) Gail was feeling (anxiety) and (depress).
- 6) They were doing some type of (statistics) analysis.
- 7) How (thank) he was for this (splendour) and (taste) dinner!
- 8) She's been extremely (patience) and a bit (pessimist) about it.
- 9) Tearing up the price list was simply a (symbolize) gesture.
- 10) It's (advice) to buy an economy pack of paper towels.
- 11) (Hygiene) conditions are poor at hospitals in the war zone.
- 12) It had been (rain) and (cloud) since morning.
- 13) There are many (eat) fruits growing wild in the (coast) forest.
- 14) If you're feeling really (adventure) try making your own flags using (wool) cloth or strong paper.
- 15) The country now has a (democracy) government for the first time.
- 16) He became very (think) about religion.
- 17) Billy is taking (element) algebra this year.
- 18) There is a clear link between asthma and (atmosphere) pollution.
- 19) Pressure for change has become (urgency).
- 20) 'Of course he won't be late; you know how (punctuality) he always is,' she said with heavy irony.
- 21) The only person who really said something (help) was Jack.
- 22) It will be good to get out after being (prison) in my room with the fever.
- 23) The emergence of Japan as a world leader was an (expectation) (economics) event.
- 24) This (musician) TV comedy is highly (succeed).
- 25) The lessons bear little relationship to the children's (act) needs.