

Adjectives

Task 5

- 1) (Falsehood) statements on your tax form could land you in jail.
- 2) Your translation is too (loosen).
- 3) Many (lead) scientists do not consider that science can give absolutely (rely) knowledge.
- 4) She was an extremely (gift) poet.
- 5) The chemicals in paint can be (hazard) to health.
- 6) I felt (amaze) and (gratitude) for our (miracle) escape.
- 7) They studied (herb) medicine as an alternative to the drugs of the (medicine) profession.
- 8) She tries to look (maturity) and sophisticated.
- 9) He was extremely (intrusion) and she was (thank) to see Marguerite hurry out.
- 10) It was a shy and (fear) child.
- 11) How much are your (month) interest payments?
- 12) I'm both (hunger) and (thirst).
- 13) The fast pace of (society) change is constantly creating new opportunities.
- 14) It's (monster) to charge that much for a hotel room.
- 15) Passing her exams was an (stand out) achievement.
- 16) It is (necessitate) to make the system more (hospitality) to women.
- 17) Many of the prisoners are (habit) liars.
- 18) It's hard to give an (object) opinion about your own children.
- 19) The housewives were asked if they found housework (monotony).
- 20) They faced the (increase) difficulty of finding (train) staff.
- 21) The meal was a (join) effort (=two or more people worked on it together).
- 22) Be (care) of the traffic when you cross the road.
- 23) (Rely) walking guidebooks cover many of the most (popularity) (continent) routes.
- 24) He was (lack) in confidence.
- 25) The sums involved are (mass)-over £12 billion in the first year (lonely).