A Fun Weekend

Last Sunday, my family wanted to do something fun together. In the morning, we went to a festival in the park. There were lots of games, food, and music. I even joined a fun water balloon race!

After lunch, we visited a small theater near our house. We watched a funny play that really made us laugh. The actors did a great job because they knew how to entertain people!

In the evening, we stayed home and read. My brother read a comic, and I chose a novel about space travel. My mom read her favorite magazine while listening to music.

The next day, my dad took us to a big concert in the city. There was loud music, dancing, and even some exciting water sports before the show started. It was such a fun and exciting weekend full of great entertainment.
