

DIRECT / INDIRECT OBJECTS

Part One. Choose the correct words to complete each sentence. Pay attention to the correct order of direct and indirect objects.

Example:

The company offered ____.

- a) a customer
- b) a free sample to a customer
- c) to a customer a free sample

Answer: b)

1. The cashier handed ____ after the payment.

- a) the receipt the customer
- b) to the customer the receipt
- c) the receipt to the customer

2. They sent ____ about the price changes.

- a) to the clients an email
- b) an email the clients
- c) an email to the clients

3. The store gave ____ during the holiday sale.

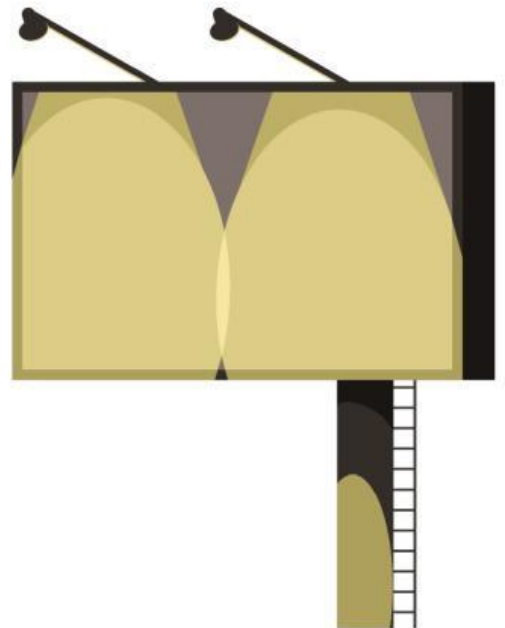

- a) everyone coupons
- b) coupons to everyone
- c) both a and b are correct

4. She showed ____ from the advertising agency.

- a) the brochure the manager
- b) the manager the brochure
- c) to the manager the brochure

5. We offered ____ for giving feedback.

- a) a small gift to the customers
- b) the customers a small gift
- c) both a and b are correct

Part 2 - Multiple Choice (Direct vs. Indirect Object). Choose the correct indirect object in each sentence.

6. The marketing team sent the promotion to ____.

- a) the product
- b) the audience
- c) the discount

7. The online store gave ____ a refund.

- a) the item
- b) the shopper
- c) the store

8. The company emailed ____ about the new campaign.

- a) their clients
- b) the advertisement
- c) the newspaper

9. He showed ____ the new commercial.

- a) the brand
- b) his boss
- c) the idea

10. They paid ____ $200 for the ad space.

- a) the platform
- b) the design
- c) the offer

