

Adjectives

Task 19

- 1) I think my uncle's death was a (mercy) release for my poor aunt.
- 2) The room was in a (fear) mess.
- 3) I can hardly think it (enjoy) experience.
- 4) In consequence of its (history) importance, the building has acquired protected status.
- 5) The warming of the Earth and the (consequence) (climate) changes affect us all.
- 6) It was (heroism) of them to oppose the invader.
- 7) Unlike (mechanic) clocks, which are completely blind to their surroundings, a (biology) clock gets reset every day by the sun.
- 8) The company was divided into four main (function) areas.
- 9) Charlie Chaplin had a long and (colour) career.
- 10) In my judgment it is (reason) and (law).
- 11) Relax in the (peace) and (please) surroundings of our hotel.
- 12) Any question about taxation is (like) to produce a (live) debate in parliament.
- 13) Though it is more (problem), it is more (fruit).
- 14) In a population confined to a particular habitat competition for (limit) resources is an (inevitability) feature of life.
- 15) Over the last hundred years, people have become (health), more (literacy), and better (education).
- 16) I had put on different (colour) socks-it was so (embarrassment)!
- 17) His had been an (isolation) and (loneliness) existence.
- 18) Teaching is not very financially (reward).
- 19) The detective has to discover the murderer by (logic) deduction.
- 20) The wood was quite (rot) by this time.
- 21) The (physics) and (emotion) state of the patient was awful.
- 22) The signs are (courageous)-but there is a long way to go.
- 23) It was probably a (luck) throw, a second (caution) glance told him.
- 24) After all, (music) talent is often considered highly linked to (mathematics) ability.