

Quiz: Time Clauses – Personal Past Experiences

Instructions:

Write one complete sentence for each time clause below.

Each sentence must have two parts:

1. A time clause (starting with the given expression).
2. A main clause that describes what happened or how you felt.

 Use simple past or past perfect when necessary.

 Be honest or creative, but make sure your sentence makes sense.

---

1. Before

---

2. After

---

3. Once

---

4. The moment

---

5. As soon as

---

6. Until

---

7. By the time

---

Quiz: Expressing Regret & Hypothetical Situations

Instructions:

Write one sentence for each prompt below using the correct structure. Each section includes two cases. Use your own experience or imagination.

◆ Part 1: Regret – should have + past participle

(Write something you regret not doing.)

 You didn't study for an important exam.

---

 You didn't say goodbye to a friend who moved away.

---

◆ Part 2: Regret – shouldn't have + past participle

(Write something you regret doing.)

 You spent all your money on something you didn't need.

---

 You said something hurtful during an argument.

---

◆ Part 3: Hypothetical – If + past perfect, would have + past participle

(Describe probable outcomes of imaginary past situations.)

 You didn't take a great opportunity to travel.

---

---

 You didn't apply for a scholarship.

---

---

◆ Part 4: Hypothetical – If + past perfect, wouldn't have + past participle

(Describe how something bad could have been avoided.)

✎ You left your phone in a taxi.

---

---

✎ You got sick after eating too much junk food.

---

---

◆ Part 5: Possibility – If + past perfect, could have + past participle

(Describe a missed opportunity.)

✎ You missed your friend's birthday party.

---

---

✎ You didn't join a school club or team.

---

---

◆ Part 6: Possibility – If + past perfect, couldn't have + past participle

(Describe something that would have been impossible.)

✎ You were helped by a teacher during a difficult time.

---

---

✎ You received help from a friend when you were moving.

---

---