ADVICE

Before you start this part, read the example given at the top of the paper. It shows you exactly what you need to do.

- You must spell the words correctly and write clearly so that the answers are easy to read.
- You must not write more than three words in your answer. Marks will not be given if you write more than three words.
- Short forms (e.g. isn't, don't, etc) count as two words.
- Write only the missing words on the answer sheet.
- In some cases, there may be more than one correct answer but write only one answer on the answer sheet.
- When you've written the missing word(s), read the completed sentence to yourself. Compare it to the first sentence. Does it have the same meaning?

To do well in this part, revise your grammar, especially tenses, direct/indirect speech, active/passive forms, conditionals, modal verbs, infinitive and -ing verb forms.

The Writing component of the Reading and Writing paper carries the same weighting as the Reading component, so make sure you spend at least 40 minutes on it.
