constructively, fuel (the view that), universally, enhance, aspects (of our social nature), contrasting, inhale, envy, administer, outcome, disposition, adept, sensitive, rejection, conduct, reveal, a dose of, interpret, associate, prone

1. The teacher encouraged students to give feedback _____, focusing on how to improve rather than criticize.
2. The documentary seemed to _____ the view that technology is making people less empathetic.
3. The film was _____ praised by everyone for its innovative storytelling and powerful message.
4. Daily exercise and meditation can significantly _____ your mental clarity and emotional stability.
5. Certain _____ help us connect deeply with others, such as empathy and compassion.
6. The two artists have _____ styles—one prefers bold colors while the other uses soft pastels.
7. If you accidentally _____ too much smoke, it can irritate your lungs.
8. She couldn't help but feel a hint of _____ when her friend was promoted before her.
9. Only trained professionals should _____ medication to ensure safety and accuracy.
10. The final _____ of the experiment supported the scientist's hypothesis.
11. Despite his cheerful attitude, he had a naturally anxious _____ that made him worry often.
12. He is _____ at solving complex problems and often helps his classmates with math.
13. Children can be especially _____ to criticism, so it's important to speak kindly.
14. _____ from her peers left her feeling isolated and insecure.
15. Researchers will _____ interviews to gather more data about the participants' experiences.
16. Her facial expressions clearly _____ how uncomfortable she felt during the conversation.
17. The patient was given _____ painkillers to help manage the discomfort after surgery.
18. It's important to _____ body language carefully, as it can reveal feelings that words do not express.
19. People often _____ success with material wealth, though it means different things to different people.
20. He is _____ to forget his belongings, so he always double-checks before leav

LIVEWORKSHEETS