

constructively, fuel (the view that), universally, enhance, aspects (of our social nature), contrasting, inhale, envy, administer, outcome, disposition, adept, sensitive, rejection, conduct, reveal, a dose of, interpret, associate, prone

1. People often _____ success with material wealth, though it means different things to different people.
2. Children can be especially _____ to criticism, so it's important to speak kindly.
3. He is _____ to forget his belongings, so he always double-checks before leaving.
4. The teacher encouraged students to give feedback _____, focusing on how to improve.
5. The film was _____ praised by everyone for its innovative storytelling and powerful message.
6. Certain _____ help us connect deeply with others, such as empathy and compassion.
7. The documentary seemed to _____ the view that technology is making people less empathetic.
8. Only trained professionals should _____ medication to ensure safety and accuracy.
9. If you accidentally _____ too much smoke, it can irritate your lungs.
10. Her facial expressions clearly _____ how uncomfortable she felt during the conversation.
11. It's important to _____ body language carefully, as it can reveal feelings that words do not express.
12. He is _____ at solving complex problems and often helps his classmates with math.
13. The two artists have _____ styles—one prefers bold colors while the other uses soft pastels.
14. Daily exercise and meditation can significantly _____ your mental clarity and emotional stability.
15. She couldn't help but feel a hint of _____ when her friend was promoted before her.
16. The patient was given _____ painkillers to help manage the discomfort after surgery.
17. _____ from her peers left her feeling isolated and insecure.
18. Researchers will _____ interviews to gather more data about the participants' experiences.
19. The final _____ of the experiment supported the scientist's hypothesis.
20. Despite his cheerful attitude, he had a naturally anxious _____ that made him worry often.