1. FARMBOT uses a camera to find unwanted plants.

2. The AI operating system compares the collected data with a standard to make a decision.

3. FARMBOT can work independently without human's help.

---

1. In the 1980s and 1990s, not many people used personal computer.

2. The reason why people started to use new technology is not logical.

3. CAD can help people design more exactly and correctly.

---

1. In the book The Wealth of Nations, Adam Smith claimed that people are more skilled when focusing on one area of knowledge and skills.

2. When one person does one job, more products are made.

3. When one person does one job, they can do other tasks well later on.

---

1. In the experiment by Prof. Cassandra, people care about what information is changed on social media platforms.

2. With the change in the algorithms, there was a significant difference in the screen time.