

DECISIONS: REVISION TEST

Finish the sentences with the correct word. Use only ONE word in each gap. The first letter of the missing words is given.

1. We have a t_____ plan to launch in May, but that might change after testing.
2. I'm p_____ to be working with such a creative team on this campaign.
3. The startup made a b_____ decision to expand into international markets despite limited funding.
4. Once we get the permit, we can move f_____ with the construction.
5. She made a s_____ d_____ to cancel the event when the storm warning came in.
6. Our holiday plans are u_____ i_____ the a_____ until we know the exam schedule.
7. At the e_____ o_____ the d_____, our goal is to make the product easy for customers to use.
8. Don't r_____ i_____ signing that contract without reading the fine print.
9. The prototype failed, so we had to go b_____ to the d_____ b_____.
10. All the department heads are o_____ b_____ with the new reporting system.
11. Once legal gives the green light, we can p_____ with the merger.
12. The decision to delay the launch until after the holiday season was w_____.
13. Rents in the city center are w_____ higher than they were before the renovation boom.
14. This is a political topic, so let's t_____ l_____ when discussing it with the press.
15. The project is moving quickly, so please k_____ everyone i_____ the l_____.
16. Leaving his job without another offer lined up was a r_____ decision.
17. Cutting costs now will save the company millions in the l_____ r_____.
18. From what I g_____, the client wants more design options before making a choice.
19. It was a u_____ d_____ to reject the risky investment proposal.
20. We need to a_____ all the u_____ and d_____ of outsourcing before deciding.