COMPREHENSION

Read the text and answer the questions:

Omar's alarm rang earlier than usual. Today, he was starting his first day at a new job, and he didn't want to risk being late. After getting dressed in his best shirt and trousers, he had a quick breakfast and double-checked the bus timetable. Luckily, the bus arrived exactly on schedule. During the journey, he put on his headphones and listened to his favorite playlist.

When he reached the office, a woman at the reception directed him to the manager's office. The manager shook his hand warmly and introduced him to several colleagues. Although Omar felt slightly anxious at the beginning, the friendly atmosphere helped him settle in. By the time the lunch break arrived, he was already chatting comfortably with his teammates. Later that evening, he shared all the details of his day with his best friend over the phone.
