WEDDING CEREMONIES

Weddings are considered as important events (0) for any bride and bridegroom. These joyful ceremonies often (1) followed customs and traditions of their ethnic origins (2) until many modern couples have incorporated some western cultures along with their own. For example, a bride carrying a flower bouquet and cutting a tiered wedding cake (3) is now common in a Malay, Indian or Chinese wedding. However, many couples still select their traditional costumes for (4) a big day. The Chinese will often choose red cheongsams to bring (5) their good luck and the Indian brides will be resplendent in their glittering sari. The Malay brides usually wear either songket baju kurung (6) nor kebaya for the special occasion. Nevertheless, (7) plan for a memorable wedding which can leave a good impression and touch the hearts of those (8) on attendance will always be a challenge.
