CITY LAYOUTS VOCABULARY

Read the sentences and choose the correct term for each blank.

1. Many people move to the _____ to enjoy more space and quieter surroundings while still being close to the city.
A) downtown
B) suburbs
C) skyscraper
D) commercial district

2. The new _____ will include both shops and offices, creating jobs for local residents.
A) public transport network
B) residential area
C) commercial district
D) industrial zone

3. The city has invested heavily in its _____ to reduce traffic congestion and pollution.
A) green space
B) outskirts
C) public transport network
D) high-rise building

4. The factory is located in the _____, far away from homes and schools.
A) industrial zone
B) metropolitan area
C) city centre
D) pedestrian zone

5. The business conference was held in a _____ with more than 30 floors.
A) residential area
B) skyscraper
C) suburb
D) public amenity

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Although I live on the _____ of the city, I can get downtown in just 20 minutes by train.
A) outskirts
B) metropolitan area
C) industrial zone
D) high-rise building

7. The city's _____ is known for its variety of shops, restaurants, and entertainment options.
A) outskirts
B) city centre
C) residential area
D) public transport network

8. The new housing development will be built in a _____ with schools, parks, and medical facilities nearby.
A) commercial district
B) residential area
C) industrial zone
D) city centre

9. Living in a _____ means you share the building with many other people, sometimes hundreds.
A) suburb
B) high-rise building
C) pedestrian zone
D) outskirts

10. London, New York, and Tokyo are examples of _____ because they include a central city and the surrounding urban areas.
A) industrial zones
B) metropolitan areas
C) suburbs
D) residential areas

LIVEWORKSHEETS