

2. Circle the correct options to complete the text.

Plastic <sup>1</sup>will have been poisoning / will be poisoning our planet for hundreds of years into the future.

And without action, the amount of plastic

<sup>2</sup>will continue / will be continuing to increase.

Soon, we <sup>3</sup>will have been recycling / will recycle plastic for 50 years – but to limited effect.

Luckily, there is some good news. In the next ten years, eco-friendly alternatives made from seaweed or sugarcane

<sup>4</sup>will have been replacing / will have replaced some plastic packaging and products. The Lego® company, for example, says that by 2030 it

<sup>5</sup>will be changing over / will have changed over to bioplastic Lego bricks. Over the next few years, companies <sup>6</sup>will be trialing / will have been trialing shampoo and shower gel bottles made from paper.

What <sup>7</sup>will you be doing / will you have done in the next year to reduce plastic waste?