My home town is smaller than London, but there are some similarities. 1 Each of the two cities is famous for its architecture. For example, 2 Kuala Lumpur and London have tall, modern buildings, set amongst older historical buildings. Although both cities have rivers running through them, 3 city is by the sea, which is a shame, as I think some of the most beautiful cities in the world are by the sea.

4 major city in the world has one thing in common – being large and busy – and 5 is true of both London and Kuala Lumpur. In fact, some people don't like my city because it is so noisy and busy, but 6 is one reason why I love it.

A lot of city markets take place in the day-time, but in 7 home city they don't open until it's dark! Malaysians tend to buy all their groceries at the night markets. In London people tend to use supermarkets for 8 food shopping.

It is always hot in Kuala Lumpur, but London can get very cold. 9 's probably why you get outdoor restaurants all over Kuala Lumpur all year round whereas in London there are almost 10 in the winter. In some restaurants in Kuala Lumpur, you can go to the kitchen and point at the food and say, 'I'll have one of 11, please!' You can't do that in London!
