

abandon	leave
absorb	big, important
profound	take sth in

1. They are talking about an accident in which oil flows out and causes pollution.
2. People who lived nearby could not do what they normally do to live.
3. People who lived nearby had to do different jobs but still stayed in that area.
4. Many plants in the polluted area can still grow.
5. Many animals had no place to live.
6. They think that the water pollution is more important.
7. The heavy metals that were taken in under the soil caused water pollution.
8. Soon people will no longer be affected by water pollution.

What do they think about the impacts of the Kolva oil spill?

- A. People had to work harder to survive in that area.
- B. It is the most destructive incident in the industry.
- C. It can cause long-term effects.