

A change for the better...

Sally and Peter Green both used to work _____ teachers in a school in Brighton. After forty years, the couple retired from teaching and moved _____ Hungary. They were both tired of the stresses _____ modern-day life and wanted to experience _____ different, so they bought a farmhouse _____ Tolna county. The farmhouse _____ located outside the picturesque village of Váralja. It is surrounded _____ several acres land and forests. _____ the help of their friendly neighbours, Sally and Peter have started producing their own fruit and vegetables. Their lifestyle is different _____ what it used to be, _____ they don't regret their decision. They are busy _____ everyday chores and their days _____ now spent working mostly _____ the farm. Sally tends _____ her vegetable garden where she _____ organic produce. They sometimes go to the town Bonyhád to _____ some shopping or sell their produce _____ the market. Life takes place at a _____ slower pace, and they find they have time _____ really enjoy it. _____ they had known how much they'd like their new lifestyle, they _____ have moved earlier.

