

Fill in the gaps with the correct word or phrase from the box below.

actually - also - both - child - children - currently - do - invest - listen to - lose - lost - make - neither - say - serious
- seriously - sign - signature - solve - speak - talk - tell - want to

Last week, Maria _____ her phone, so she couldn't _____ to her friends. She wanted to _____ them about an important meeting, but she could only _____ a message on social media instead.

Her brother, who is still a _____, didn't understand why she was so upset. "It's not a _____ problem," he said. Maria didn't agree — she thought it was _____ a big deal.

They _____ wanted to bake something for their mother's birthday, but _____ of them knew how to _____ a cake. Their neighbor offered to help if they promised to _____ to her instructions.

Maria decided to _____ some money in a baking course. She thought it would _____ the problem of not knowing how to cook. She _____ loves cooking, but she had never taken it _____ until now.

When she enrolled in the course, she had to _____ a form and write her _____ at the bottom. "Don't _____ this chance," the instructor told her. "You can _____ your homework and have fun at the same time."