Spies & Rahab in Jericho

Joshua 2:1-24

1. Where did the two men that Joshua sent to Jericho stay?
   The local hotel
   At the house of a prostitute named Rahab
   At Joshua's house

2. Why did the King order the two men to be brought out of Rahab's house?
   They were sent as spies
   He didn't want the men to hurt Rahab
   So the King could congratulate them

3. Did Rahab give up the two spies to the King?
   Yes
   No

4. What did Rahab tell the King about the two spies?
   That she had not seen them at all
   That she was hiding them
   They were there earlier but left just as the gates were about to close

5. Where did Rahab actually take the two spies?
   To a back bedroom
   To the roof
   To the barn

6. What happened as soon as the King's men left to find the two spies?
   They were attacked and killed
   All of their horses dropped dead
   The gate of Jericho was shut

7. Why were the people of Jericho scared of the two spies?
   They were afraid the men were going to rob them
   They had heard how they crossed the Red Sea on dry land and how they destroyed the other tribes
   They were trying to protect their children

8. What did the two spies promise Rahab?
   If she didn't betray them, they would be kind to her and her family
   They would come back to kill her and her family
   Gold and silver

9. What did the two spies offer as a guarantee for Rahab's safety?
   Gold and Jewels
   Their own lives
   Their horses and donkeys
