My Busy Weekend

Last weekend, I visited my grandparents in the countryside. I walked to the bus station and then I waited for the bus. The bus arrived late, so I decided to call my friend. He helped me carry my bags when I finally reached the house.

We played some games, watched TV, and talked about school. My grandmother cooked a delicious meal, and we all enjoyed it together. After dinner, I cleaned the kitchen and washed the dishes.

On Sunday, I visited the market with my grandfather. He needed some vegetables, so we shopped for carrots and tomatoes. I also painted a small picture for my cousin. Finally, I returned home and rested before school started again.
