

Name: _____ Class : _____ No. _____

Instructions: Read the passage of the Tihar festival and fill in the blanks with the correct sequencing words: first, second, next, then, and finally/lastly.

Tihar is a festival in Nepal that lasts for five days. Each day has different activities. On the first day, people honor cows by giving them food. The second day is for dogs, and they receive flowers and tasty treats. On the third day, cows are celebrated, and houses are decorated with lights. The fourth day is for oxen, and people have family feasts. The fifth and final day is for brothers and sisters to show their love for each other. Tihar is a time of joy and celebration for everyone in Nepal.

(put the number in order)

_____ houses are decorated with lights to celebrate cows.

_____ people have family feasts to honor oxen.

_____ brothers and sisters show their love for each other.

_____ dogs receive flowers and tasty treats.

_____ people honor cows by giving them food.

(fill the blanks)

Tihar is a festival in Nepal that lasts for five days. Each day has different activities. _____, people honor cows by giving them food. Second, _____. _____, houses are decorated with lights to celebrate cows. Then _____. _____, brothers and sisters to show their love for each other. Tihar is a time of joy and celebration for everyone in Nepal.