

Grade 8 Science - Digestive System Worksheet

Part A – Labeling

Write the correct organ in the blank.

1. The organ where digestion begins: _____
2. Tube that carries food from mouth to stomach: _____
3. Organ that churns food and mixes it with acid: _____
4. Organ where most digestion and absorption happen: _____
5. Organ where water is absorbed: _____
6. Stores bile: _____
7. Produces bile: _____
8. Produces digestive enzymes: _____

Part B – Matching

Match the organ with its function.

Mouth → Chews food and mixes with saliva

Stomach → Breaks food with acid and enzymes

Liver → Produces bile for fat digestion

Small intestine → Absorbs nutrients into the blood

Large intestine → Absorbs water and forms feces

Part C – Multiple Choice

1. Which organ is responsible for most nutrient absorption? a) Stomach b) Small intestine c) Large intestine
2. Which organ produces bile? a) Liver b) Pancreas c) Gallbladder
3. Where does digestion start? a) Mouth b) Stomach c) Esophagus

Part D – Fill in the Blank

1. The digestive system changes food into _____ that the body can use.
2. The small intestine has finger-like projections called _____ that help absorb food.
3. The process of breaking down food into small soluble substances is called _____.