I prefer going to the cinema because of louder sound effects and a better picture quality. (Mark)

Online is better, for sure. Just think about it. You don't need to stand in a line with other people to get tickets. And also you can pause a film whenever you like to get snacks or drinks. (Jack)

In my opinion, going to the cinema is a better experience. There's a huge screen there, and you can enjoy films in 3D. (Samantha)

Watching films online is convenient, but I think it doesn't feel as real as in the cinema when you are surrounded by lots of sounds. It's a totally different atmosphere there. That's why I prefer going out to enjoy a film. (Michel)

I can't say that I enjoy going to the cinema. You can't pause a film there. And you can't discuss it with your friends; you have to wait till the end. It's no fun that way. Watching online is much better. (Miranda)

To my mind, the atmosphere at home is worse. You get distracted by your phone, conversations with your friends or getting a snack. You can't fully enjoy a film in such conditions, can you? (Kate)

I hardly ever go to the cinema. Last time I went, I got such a terrible seat. There was a tall guy sitting right in front of me. I couldn't see the screen at all! Have you ever been in such a situation? Well, believe me. You won't such a problem if you watch films sitting on your sofa. (Mona)
