

Names: _____

Date: _____

Might, May, and Will – Probability Practice

(Will = Very probable    May = Probable    Might = Less probable)

1. Match the sentences with the correct probability word.

Draw a line from the sentence to the correct word.

1. I ___ visit my grandma if I have time.
2. She ___ come to the party; she is still deciding.
3. We ___ go swimming because the weather is perfect.

a) will    b) may    c) might

2. Complete the sentences with might, may, or will.

1. It _____ definitely rain later.
2. I'm not sure, but we _____ see a rainbow.
3. They _____ travel to Paris next summer.
4. Don't worry! I _____ help you with your homework.
5. He is busy, so he _____ call you back later.

3. Circle the correct option.

1. The sun is shining. We (might / will / may) go to the beach.
2. She is feeling tired. She (will / might / may) stay home tonight.
3. I studied hard. I (might / will / may) pass the test for sure!
4. There's a chance we (will / might / may) meet your cousin.
5. He (will / may / might) help if you ask nicely.