

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

I'm really excited. It's my brother Ned's birthday on Saturday. He 's/'re going to be 14!

Ned thinks we isn't/aren't going to do anything special, but in fact we 'm/'re going to have a big party. It 's/'re going to be at home and lots of family and friends is/are going to come. A DJ am not/isn't going to be there, but it's OK.

I 'm/'s going to play the music on Ned's mp3 player. It's going to be great! 😊

COMPLETE THE PASSAGE WITH BE GOING TO AND THE VERBS IN BRACKETS.

We've got a big problem.

We _____ (have) Ned's party in the garden, but the weather forecast says it _____ (rain) on Saturday evening.

My parents _____ (not change) their plans. Instead, they _____ (buy) lots of umbrellas. That's silly!

I _____ (tell) them to think again, but I know my dad _____ (not listen) to me.

Poor Ned! The party _____ (be) a disaster in the rain. 😞

