

Name: _____

Score: _____

26 Multiple choice questions

Definition

1 of 26

This "dark horse" Democrat defeated Clay in the 1844 presidential election.

- Andrew Jackson
- Martin Van Buren
- James K. Polk
- John C. Calhoun

Definition

2 of 26

Henry Clay's estate in Lexington, Kentucky, was known by this name.

- Alabama
- Louisville
- Ashland
- Missouri Compromise

Definition

3 of 26

In 1826, Henry Clay survived a duel with this Virginia senator after being called a "blackleg."

- James Monroe
- Theodore Frelinghuysen
- James Kent
- John Randolph

Definition

4 of 26

This political party, co-founded by Clay, opposed Jacksonian Democrats.

- Federalist Party
- Republican Party
- Progressive Party
- Whig Party

Definition

5 of 26

Henry Clay lost the 1844 presidential election after writing this anti-Texas annexation letter.

- Charlotte Dupuy
- Maysville Road
- Raleigh Letter
- Ashland

Definition

6 of 26

Henry Clay served as the U.S. ambassador to this European country after the War of 1812.

- Denmark
- Hungary
- Belgium
- Germany

Definition

This 1820 agreement negotiated by Clay maintained the balance of free and slave states by admitting its namesake state as a slave state.

7 of 26

- Theodore Frelinghuysen
- Embargo Act of 1807
- Henry Clay
- Missouri Compromise

Definition

Clay's support helped elect this Massachusetts-born president in 1824.

8 of 26

- Henry Clay
- Martin Van Buren
- James K. Polk
- John Quincy Adams

Definition

This early 1800s law opposed by Clay led to a duel with Humphrey Marshall.

9 of 26

- Alien and Sedition Acts of 1798
- Louisiana Purchase Treaty of 1803
- Embargo Act of 1807
- Tariff Act of 1812

Definition

Henry Clay supported this U.S. treaty that officially ended the War of 1812.

10 of 26

- Treaty of Greensburg
- Treaty of Ghent
- Treaty of Versailles
- Treaty of Paris

Definition

Henry Clay was accused of striking this deal in the 1824 election, giving John Quincy Adams the presidency in exchange for becoming Secretary of State.

11 of 26

- Great Triumvirate
- Corrupt Bargain
- Democratic Discussion
- Missouri Compromise

Definition

Clay's cousin, this anti-slavery newspaper editor and diplomat, killed Cyrus Turner in self-defense.

12 of 26

- John Randolph
- Raleigh Letter
- Cassius Clay
- Henry Clay

Definition

This early American president vetoed Clay-supported spending for the Bonus Bill of 1817.

13 of 26

- Benjamin Franklin
- Henry Clay
- John C. Calhoun
- James Madison

Definition

This enslaved woman from Clay's household sued for her freedom while living at Ashland.

14 of 26

- John C. Calhoun
- Henry Clay
- Charlotte Dupuy
- Cassius Clay

Definition

Clay's compromise in 1850 included this controversial law requiring the return of escaped slaves.

15 of 26

- Fugitive Slave Act of 1850
- American System
- Treaty of Ghent
- John C. Calhoun

Definition

This Kentucky politician was known as the 'Great Compromiser' for brokering sectional deals like the Missouri Compromise and Compromise of 1850.

16 of 26

- John C. Calhoun
- Daniel Webster
- Andrew Jackson
- Henry Clay

Definition

This Whig vice-presidential nominee ran with Clay in the 1844 election.

17 of 26

- Theodore Frelinghuysen
- John C. Calhoun
- Jonathan Edwards
- Roger Williams

Definition

Clay lost the 1832 election to Andrew Jackson while representing this political party.

18 of 26

- Whig Party
- Democratic Party
- Anti-masonic Party
- National Republican Party

Definition

Henry Clay supported the construction of this controversial road project in Kentucky vetoed by Andrew Jackson.

19 of 26

- Specie Circular
- Louisiana Purchase
- Maysville Road
- Raleigh Letter

Definition

This South Carolina senator opposed Clay during the Nullification Crisis.

20 of 26

- Daniel Webster
- Andrew Jackson
- Henry Clay
- John C. Calhoun

Definition

Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, and John C. Calhoun were collectively known by this term for their senatorial dominance.

- Fort Mchenry
- Great Triumvirate
- Planter Aristocracy
- Whig Party

Definition

While we're on people with this name, name this chairman of the Carnegie Steel Company who sent Pinkertons to put down the Homestead Strike, leading Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman to attempt to assassinate him.

- Henry Clay Frick
- Andrew Carnegie
- Frederick Winslow Taylor
- Cassius Clay

Definition

This tariff dispute contributed to sectional tensions during Clay's congressional career.

- Missouri Compromise
- Revolutionary War
- Bank War
- Nullification Crisis

Definition

Clay founded this society aimed at resettling freed African Americans in Africa. It employed naval officer Robert Stockton in Liberia.

- American Colonization Society
- Female Vigilant Society
- National Republican Party
- Great Triumvirate

Definition

This economic plan proposed by Henry Clay promoted a national bank, protective tariffs, and internal improvements.

- Federal Banking System
- Factory System
- American System
- Parliamentary System

Definition

This politician claimed he only regretted not shooting Henry Clay.

- Andrew Jackson
- Abraham Lincoln
- John C. Calhoun
- James K. Polk