James Madison's War Message to Congress

1. What was Madison's presidency dominated by?
   The War of 1812
   Crisis with Great Britain
   A feud with France
2. Who was President when the crisis over U.S. Shipping rights began?
   George Washington
   Thomas Jefferson
   Benjamin Franklin
3. What years did James Madison serve as Secretary of State?
   1805 - 1812
   1806 - 1815
   1800 – 1808
4. What led to the Embargo Act of 1807?
   The capture of French sailors
   The Impressment of American sailors to British ships
   The destruction of the American Flag
5. What did the Embargo Act of 1807 restrict?
   Foreign trade
   Domestic trade
   Foreign and Domestic trade
6. What convinced President Madison to allow trade with France?
   They gave the American flag back to the United States
   Madison knew that France would surrender
   Napoleon's announcement that France would no longer seize American ships
7. Did the U.S. declare war with France?
   Yes
   No
8. When did President Madison send his war message to Congress?
   June 1, 1812
   June 2, 1811
   May 5, 1806
9. What did Madison accuse the British of violating?
   The 5th Amendment
   The American Flag
   Their religious beliefs
10. James Madison is known as the Father of the _____.
    United States
    Constitution
    Bride
11. What are the first 10 amendments to the Constitution called?
    The Constitutional Convention
    The Declaration of Independence
    The Bill of Rights
12. No nation could preserve its freedom in the midst of continual _____.
    Warfare
    Agreement
    Peace

LIVEWORKSHEETS