

Enough and Too much / Too many + nouns

A Match the sentences. Write the correct letters.

- | | |
|--|---|
| ___ 1. There's too much rain. | a. It's impossible to find one when it rains. |
| ___ 2. There are too many tourists. | b. You never need to wait long for one. |
| ___ 3. There are too many skyscrapers. | c. We need more sunshine. |
| ___ 4. There aren't enough cabs. | d. They make too much noise. |
| ___ 5. There are enough parks here. | e. I don't like tall buildings. |
| ___ 6. There's too much crime. | f. You can always find a good place to eat. |
| ___ 7. There are enough restaurants. | g. It's not very safe. |
| ___ 8. There's enough buses. | h. Yes, it's called "The Green City." |

B Complete the conversations. Write affirmative or negative sentences. Use There is / There are + too many, too much, enough, or not enough. Use contractions when possible.

- A: _____ hotels for all the tourists.
B: I know. They need to build more.
- A: _____ parking downtown.
B: I agree! I can never find a space.
- A: _____ cars. We only have two highways.
B: Yes. The traffic is terrible.
- A: _____ pollution in this city.
B: You're right. It's because there are too many cars.
- A: The weather is great today.
B: Yes, it is. _____ sunshine.
- A: _____ good restaurants.
B: I know. There are only fast food places.
- A: I can't find a good school for my daughter.
B: Yeah. That's a problem. _____ good schools here.
- A: Wow! Someone opened another coffee shop across the street.
B: _____ coffee shops here. I love coffee, but how many do we need?