10 Read the article about how to deal with emails at work and then complete the notes. Use one word from the text for each answer.The Rules of Email

Nowadays, employees have to read lots of emails, and it's important to know how to reply to them properly.

Don't make an email longer than it needs to be. The people receiving your email are busy, too, so don't waste their time. Remember to answer any questions that the sender has asked you because if you don't, you will receive more emails about these questions.

Check your spelling, grammar and punctuation. If this is not correct, people may have a bad opinion of you and your company. Avoid using capital letters because this looks like you're shouting at the person you're writing to. Email is supposed to be a quick type of communication and is therefore different to writing a letter, so avoid using long sentences to say what you want to say. Many people don't read their emails before they send them, and this is a mistake. Always check what you've written.

Finally, most customers send an email because they want a response in writing rather than on the phone. If they wanted a quick reply, they would just make a phone call. Therefore, employees should try to reply within 24 hours. If you need more time, send a short, polite email saying you will get back to the customer with a more detailed reply as soon as possible.

Dealing with emails

- Keep emails short.
- Deal with all ¹ _____ in the email you received.
- Check spelling, punctuation and grammar – don't use capital ² _____.
- Don't make your sentences too ³ _____.
- ⁴ _____ your email again before you send it.
- ⁵ _____ to send a reply on the same day.
