

PRACTICE 4

Read the report below. Six sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from the sentences (A - H) to fit each gap (35 - 40).

Leadership Camp

The Co-curricular unit of SMK Mutiara recently organised a Leadership Camp at Brindley Training & Camp, Port Dickson from 25th – 27th January 2023. The three days and two nights camp was a compulsory programme for all presidents and secretaries of all the clubs in school.

They were accompanied by five teachers, including the Senior Assistant of Co-Curriculum Affairs, Puan Avilin. (35) ____ The objectives of the camp were to instil leadership qualities and to improve teamwork among the participants.

Upon arrival at the campsite, they were given a briefing by the facilitators. The participants were divided into groups. The first group activity was to come up with their group identities through a slogan, flag and team name. (36) ____

(37) ____ This activity helped the participants to understand the value of teamwork. During the activity, the participants were grouped according to their teams. Equipped with a compass, a box of matches, mineral water and some light snacks, each team was to make their way to the end in the shortest time possible.

The highlight of the camp was the cultural night. During the cultural night, participants were required to write and stage an impromptu play. This activity greatly helped them overcome their fears and build up their confidence. (38) ____ It was indeed a new experience for them.

On the final morning, after the participants had a hearty breakfast, an open floor session was conducted. During this session, the participants were given the opportunity to voice out their feelings and opinions regarding the camp. (39) ____

The leadership camp was a huge success because all participants showed tremendous support by actively participating in all the activities throughout the duration of the camp. (40) ____

- A Many of them were initially hesitant to act it out.
- B All the activities were conducted by youth leaders from Nihara University.
- C This activity greatly enhanced the participants' communication and language skills.
- D The activity for the second day of the camp was jungle trekking.
- E Their leadership qualities were successfully honed through the various activities carried out.
- F The accompanying teachers showed a great commitment.
- G Leadership camp encouraged the participants to set an example for others.
- H Most of the participants gave constructive feedback on what the camp had taught them.

[6 marks]