

1 Listen and answer. Did Greg have any difficulties in London? Then read.

Tom: Welcome back, Greg! When did you arrive?

Greg: Thanks! We arrived home yesterday afternoon.

Kevin: I've never traveled abroad. How was London?

Greg: It was interesting. You see, they speak a bit differently there.

Tom: What do you mean?

Greg: Well, on the first day, we went to the tourist information office to get directions to the British Museum. The man there told us that the fastest way to go was by Tube. We didn't understand so he explained that that's what they call the subway.

Kevin: Really? That's funny!

Greg: There's something even funnier. Have you ever heard the phrase "zebra crossing"?

Tom: No, I haven't.

Greg: It's the crosswalk! I laughed when I thought about it!

Tom: Ha ha! Did you visit many places?

Greg: Oh, yes! It was a great vacation.

Kevin: Did you try any local specialties?

Greg: Yes, I did! I tried "fish and chips". That's fish with fries.

Kevin: Really? More different words?

Greg: Exactly! But it was one of the best trips I've been on so far. I learned a lot of different things. Come over after school and I'll tell you more!
