GE9 VIEWS AND VOICES 5

1. Write FIVE sentences about teenage stereotypes in your country using the PRESENT SIMPLE PASSIVE with verbs (such as tell, expect, judged, say, think, blame, etc.), then give your opinion and use specific reasons to support it.

E.g.: We are expected to always focus only on schoolwork. I think this is unfair because teenagers also develop creativity and problem-solving skills when they join clubs, play sports, or try new hobbies.

a. _____

_____

_____

b. _____

_____

_____

c. _____

_____

_____

d. _____

_____

_____

e. _____

_____

_____

2. Make a sentence with each of the following word/ phrase:

social flexibility: _____

save up for: _____

tell someone off: _____

be supposed to do something: _____

get into trouble: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

ambition: _____

petition: _____

self-analysis: _____

problem-solving skills: _____

risk assessment: _____

stereotype: _____

interrupt: _____

terrified: _____

issue: _____

strike: _____

demonstration: _____

rage: _____

3. Complete the following sentences using the PRESENT SIMPLE and PRESENT CONTINUOUS:

I _____(have) a new computer. Do you want to check it out?

They_____(have) breakfast with their family upstairs. Do you really need to see them now?

She _____(seem) busy at the moment. I'll see her later then.

My brother _____always _____(complain) about having too much homework.

The train journey from Hanoi to Ninh Binh _____(take) about 2 hours.

The world _____(change) and it _____(change) rapidly.

_____your dog_____(bark) at strangers?

This report _____(take) ages to write. I don't know when I'll get it finished.

We _____(meet) up with the Smiths this afternoon. Would you like to join us?

What time _____the event _____(start)?

Wow, this coffee _____(taste) delicious. Where did you get it?

The chef _____(taste) the vegan dishes I've cooked. Wait a moment, please.

LIVEWORKSHEETS