

TUNAS BANGSA CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

WORKSHEET

2025 – 2026

WORKSHEET ON MISPLACED AND DANGLING MODIFIERS

Identify if the underlined word or phrase is misplaced or dangling. If misplaced, write M, then rewrite the sentence by placing the modifier next to the word it modifies. If dangling, write D, then correct the sentence by fixing it, in which the modifier has a clear word to modify.

Example: The cake was eaten by the children covered in chocolate frosting. M

Answer: The cake covered in chocolate icing was eaten by the children.

Example: After finishing the assignment, the TV was turned on. D

Answer: After finishing the assignment, I turned on the TV.

1. Walking to the school bus, the rain soaked my clothes. _____
2. She almost drove her kids to school every day. _____
3. Running quickly, the finish line was crossed by John. _____
4. Shouting loudly, the window was opened. _____
5. We saw several dolphins on vacation in Hawaii. _____
6. The man walked his dog wearing flip-flops. _____
7. Hanging on the wall, I admired the painting. _____
8. The teacher served snacks to the students in plastic bags. _____
9. Eager to impress the judges, the cake was baked with care. _____
10. Driving down the street, the trees were beautiful. _____