

Compound Adjectives

1. Get the idea:

1. a five - star hotel
2. a short - sleeved shirt
3. a five - minute walk
4. a well- known writer
5. a seven - person lift
6. a 40 - minute lesson
7. a ten - foot fence
8. a three- man crew
9. a four - kilo fish
10. a three - hour exam
11. an easy - going girl
12. a good -looking woman
13. second - hand things
14. a well - written novel
15. a badly - written book
16. a seven - day trip

2. Connect the words to form Compound adjectives:

- | | |
|-----------|------------|
| 1. second | a) east |
| 2. north | b) painted |
| 3. part | c) hand |
| 4. well | d) time |
| 5. badly | e) written |
| 6. left | f) going |
| 7. easy | g) west |
| 8. south | h) side |
| 9. two | i) dollar |
| 10. five | j) person |
| 11. high | k) star |
| 12. fifty | l) looking |
| 13. seven | m) heeled |
| 14. ten | n) meter |
| 15. good | o) day |

3. Complete the sentences with the suitable words in the box:

1. I was happy to find a ten-_____ note in the street.
2. Have you ever talked to a well-_____ person?
3. Tom is an easy- _____ person.
4. I have got a part - _____ job at the university.
5. We adore five- _____ walks in the park.
6. Helen is a _____ - looking girl.
7. The shop is in a five - _____ walk from here.
8. She lives in a five-_____ building.

good	time	euro	going
minute	known	kilometer storey

4. Replace the underlined words with the compound adjectives:

Ex.: The story is not written well.

This is a badly-written story.

1. She is a famous poet.

2. My sister, who is two years old, is very naughty.

3. A walk of about five kilometers may be very exhausting.

4. The Browns have bought a used car.

5. My dress costs fifty dollars.

6. He works only part of the day.
