The Kindergarten Teacher

It was Sue Lin's first day as a kindergarten teacher at Tadika Sri Mesra. She was excited to start this new journey. After reporting for duty, she was assigned to Class 2A. The principal walked Sue Lin to her class. (35) ☐ It was just Sue Lin and the students. Sue Lin put down her things and immediately started to teach. After some time, the students stopped listening and began chatting with one another.

In order to get the students' attention, Sue Lin decided to play some music from the CD player. She wanted to get them to dance. When the music played, all the students started following Sue Lin's moves. (36) ☐ The students soon got bored and continued talking again.

After her first attempt failed, Sue Lin tried to teach them a lesson from the textbook. As she was about to begin her lesson, the students started complaining about their friends. "Teacher, he pinched me." "Teacher, Minachi took my pen." The number of times they called Sue Lin was enough to test Sue Lin's patience. (37) ☐

Later, a student called Sue Lin to tell her that he could not find his book. (38) ☐ She was surprised to find that his bag was full of toys instead of books. After finding the book, Sue Lin sat down to rest.

Then, the students gathered around Sue Lin and started talking to her. Everyone was asking for her attention. She had to respond to all of the students' questions and complaints at the same time. (39) ☐ She didn't even have time for a break.

At 12 noon, the bell finally rang and it was the end of class. (40) ☐ She packed her things and made her way home. She was looking forward to a good rest after a long and tiring day.
